Read the following poem carefully and answer the questions given below.

In the garden, plants grow tall,
Sunflowers, roses, and trees so small.
Bugs and bees all hum around,
Making the garden a busy sound.

At night, when stars are shining bright,
The garden holds a secret light.
The flowers glow, the leaves will sway,
As if the plants begin to play.

But come the dawn, the sun shines through,
The secret ends, the light turns blue.
The garden's calm, the flowers sleep,
Their mystery, the night will keep.
