Paragraph Instruction

Read the following poem carefully and answer the MCQs given below:

The air, once clear, now wears a haze,
A smoky shroud in modern days.
The rivers weep, their waters stained,
By careless hands, a world profaned.

The earth, once green, now bears a scar,
From plastic waste, both near and far.
The silent trees, they softly sigh,
As poisoned winds go rushing by.

A fragile balance, overthrown,
By fumes and waste, so widely sown.
We breathe the toxins, day by day,
And watch our planet fade away.

You may have heard of the Paralympic Games. This international tournament is just like the Olympics. Athletes from all over the world compete against each other. The games include athletics, shooting, swimming, cycling, and eighteen other games. The athletes at the Paralympics have a range of physical disabilities. Some of them do not have arms or legs. Some others cannot see. However, these athletes are determined to turn their disability into ability. This is something that can win them medals and do their nations proud. The Paralympic Games were first conducted in 1948 in London. It was for British soldiers who had been injured during World War II. These first games were called the Wheelchair Games. They were a big success. The soldiers, who had thought that they would never be able to take part in sports again, got a chance to play and win. Since then, the Paralympic Games have grown. Today, over 3900 athletes from 146 countries participate in them. Every four years, when the Olympics are held, the Paralympics are held too.

Questions: 1. Which athletes participate in the Paralympic Games? (2) 2. For whom were the first Paralympic Games organized? (2) 3. When are the Paralympic games held? (2) 4. What is the aim of the Paralympic Games? Describe in three sentences (2) 5. Give a suitable title to the paragraph. (2)

Discipline is the law of nature. It is in man's best interest to observe discipline in all walks of life. Discipline is the backbone of character. Without discipline, nothing great can be achieved in life. A man who does not observe discipline in life has to suffer. He becomes lethargic and arrogant. He is disliked by all. A student who does not obey his teachers and does not do his homework does not get success. An employee who does not work sincerely in the office may be sacked at any time. If sportsmen do not observe discipline, they cannot hope to win any match. In the army, discipline is of utmost importance. Discipline leads
